

Jose Angel Núñez Lucena

Cover letter

DEAR SIRs

I saw you advert site and I am interested in the post of developer software

Work experience opening education hope you will appreciate both my educations

Qualifications – I have a degree in development software multiplatform form utez – and, my one year experience in the field of software development my teamwork and leadership skills are good and I can speak English well attachments-references attach my cv and two references hope for interview I look forward to meeting you in on interview.

1. What job are you applying for?
2. Do you have experience with spring boot?
3. What programming languages do you know
4. Do you speak English fluently?
5. What database have you worked with?

The questions relations with the cover letter Ocampo Giles